RUSS PROPAGANDA IN LOCAL TOWNS

Government Agents Seek Bolshevik Agent Who Is Circulating Doctrine Here.

Is the red flag of Bolshevism flaunting in the face of Memphis? This is the question that local federal agents are endeavoring to determine following the mailing to The News Scimitar by an anonymous Bolshevik, who is or has been in the city, of a piece of insidious Red Guard propaganda.

The fact that the Bolshevik was in Memphis is established by the fact the letter was mailed at the local post office on Jan. 27, and stamped at the postoffice at 8 p.m. on that date. There is no return address the average person any other identification that would lead to the identity of the sender.

The letter was promptly turned over to W. E. McKelven, head of the federal agents in the Memphis territory. At the conclusion of the four-page pamphlet is a union label with the words "Red Guard" and "Bolshevik" in it. This means that it was not printed in Memphis, but elsewhere, and brought here. There are only 25 union printing shops in Memphis.

The label on the pamphlet was also marked with ink, purposely agents believe, to prevent discovery of the city in which it was printed.

"If we were to even sanction such ideas as the pamphlet contains," he stated, "we would have our charter taken away. I am sure there is no member of our union who would print such articles. If there were he would promptly be ousted."

The fact the one copy was mailed in Memphis is an indication that other copies may have been mailed, federal agents say. They ask that any patriotic Memphians who have received a copy give it to them at 1120 Exchange building.

The department of justice men say they can probably trace the pamphlet back to its origin in a printing shop, and there obtain the names and addresses of the ones responsible for its output.

The pamphlet is started by the words "Russia's Answer to the Charge of Terrorism," in big black letters. There follows: "Issued by the People's Commissariat of Foreign Affairs, W. V. Zinoviev."

The paper contains all sorts of details of the charges of the allies as to the actions of Bolshevism, denounces the fact that the outside nations have attempted to interfere with internal affairs and accuse them of fomenting and supporting a counter-revolution.

Threats to the allies and their citizens contained in the propaganda are not weakened in ambiguous words or concealed. As if by purpose, they are glaring and put into the most conspicuous print and places.

INHERITANCE TAX BILL IS AMENDED BY SENATE

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Feb. 14. (Sp.)—The inheritance tax bill was called on for final reading in the senate yesterday afternoon and amended so as to take effect April 1. WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—The American policy in Russia was the subject of another hot debate yesterday in the senate. It will require a majority vote for further consideration.

FORREST CITY, Ark., Feb. 14. C. Torrence, a check for $3,524.04 was received today by Senator F. W. Delossitt, secretary of the Southern national highway. THIRTIETH DIVISION BOYS TO FIND WORK ON FARM

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Feb. 14. Alfred, representing the university, has made arrangements with the commanding officer at Fort Oglethorpe whereby Tennessee men may fill out a card stating that they desire employment on farms.

THE Second Table. The unbearable period of "watchful waiting," when the fragrance of the turkey spelled anguish for youthful hunger and banished all thought of frolic or play; when "company" meant merely intruders who trampled childish joys beneath brutal feet.

In years gone by the best bread was baked at home—for the bakery was a little "cellar" institution, seldom scrupulously clean—and bakers were inexpert.

But this is no longer the case. Today the up-to-date bakery turns out bread unrivalled for cleanliness, purity, quality and expert baking. Foremost among fine baker's breads stands Betsy Ross. Into this superior loaf have gone the results of a huge organization's long experience. It is no longer good economy to bake at home, when pure, wholesome and delicious bread like Betsy Ross can be had. Ask for it at your grocer's.
